

Early in 2021, my wife & I listed our house with Bill Thom, of Re/Max. Statistically, one might suppose early January might not be considered a prime selling month for real estate. In addition, we were in the middle of a pandemic. Bill, with his experience, knowledge, & professionalism, guided us through this traumatic experience. He listed the house on Tuesday, completed the sale by Friday. A congenial, well informed professional, makes what appears to be impossible, a reality.

Many thanks Bill for your guidance, good nature, combined with your professionalism. It makes for a winning combination.
